Recalling its resolutions 61/16 of 20 November 2006 and 68/1 of 20 September 2013 on the strengthening of the Economic and Social Council,

Recognizing that the participation of developing countries in the sessions of the Executive Board of the United Nations Development Programme held in Geneva has been significantly less than that in those held in New York,

Noting the comparatively larger presence of missions from developing countries in New York,

Recognizing that the primary programming constituents of the United Nations development system continue to be developing countries,

Recognizing also the large financial burden that the current system of alternating Executive Board sessions between New York and Geneva places on both developing countries and the United Nations Development Programme,

Noting that holding the Executive Board sessions in New York would present significant cost savings to the core resources of the United Nations Development Programme, which could then be utilized for programming activities of the United Nations development system,

1. Decides that all annual sessions of the Executive Board of the United Nations Development Programme will henceforth be held at United Nations Headquarters in New York;

2. Requests the United Nations Development Programme to continue the existing arrangements to facilitate the participation of least developed countries and landlocked developing countries in the annual sessions to be held in New York.
